CURIOUS MEDLEY. By the lake where drooped the willow, Row, brothers, row; I want to be an angel,

And jump Jim Crow. An old crow sat on a hickory limb, None knew him but to praise; Let me kiss him for his mother, For he smells of Schweizer kase.

The minstrel to the war has gone, With the banjo on his knee; He awoke to hear the sentry's shriek, There's a light in the window for thee.

A frog he would a wooing go, His hair was curled to kill: He used to wear an old grey coat And the sword of Bunker Hill.

Oft in the stilly night Make way for liberty ! he cried: I won't go home till morning, With Peggy by my side. I am dying, Egypt, dying,

Susannah, don't you cry; Know how sublime a thing it is To brush away the blue-tailed fly. The boy stood on the burning deck, With his baggage checked for Troy;

One of the few immortal names, His name was Pat Molloy. Mary had a little lamb. He could a tale unfold: He had no teeth to eat a hoe-cake, As his spectacles were gold.

Lay on, lay on, Macduff, Man wants but little here below: And I'm to be queen of the May, So kiss me quick and go.

INTERESTING ANNIVERSARY .- Those who last year attended the anniversary of the "Northern Home for Friendless Children," and of the "Home for Soldiers' and Satiors' Orphans," will not fail to be present at this year's auniversary, which will be held in the Union M. E. Church, Fourth street, below Arch, on next Tuesday evening, May 14. The occasion promises to be one of unusual interest. In addition to a number of prominent speakers, among whom are his Honor the Mayor, Judges Pierce and Brew-ster, and Rev. Mr. Consling, a variety of new and beautiful songs and hymns will be sung by the children, together with dialogues, recita-tions, etc. As the object of these model insti-tutions is the promotion of the welfare of homeless and friendless children, as well as of the orphans of our soldiers and sailors, it is to be hoped that the house will be crowded to its utmost capacity. Those who attend will be more than repaid, as the children show remarkable proficiency in their studies, and will on this occasion afford their audience an opportunity of judging correctly on this point. It is expected that his Excellency Gov. Geary will be present and make a brief address.

METHODIST HISTORICAL SOCIETY .- The need of an association of this kind has been feit by the members of this denomination, and the matter has been acted upon at the Preachers' Meeting, and the organization of the Historical Society of the Philadelphia Conference is the result. The object of the Society will be to collect and preserve information in connection with the rise and progress of Methodism within the bounds of the Philadelphia Conference and clsewhere, likewise objects of curiosity and in-terest in the form of manuscripts, books, pamphlets, medals, portraits, etc. The follow-ing officers have been elected:—President, Rev. William Cooper, D. D.; Vice-Presidents, Rev. B. H. Nadal, D. D., James W. Earley, Joseph Parrish, M. D.; Corresponding Secretary and Librarian, Rev. G. W. Lybrand; Recording Sec-retary, William C. Bakes; Treasurer, D. H. Loudenslager, The hall of the Society is at No. Loudenslager. The hall of the Society is at No. 1018 Arch street.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE UNIVERSALIST ASSO CIATION .- The annual meeting of the Philadelphia Universalist Association took place yesterday afternoon, in the church on Locust street, above Thirteenth. Rev. R. Eddy was chosen for Moderator. Reports were received from the churches connected with the Association, which represented them to be in a growing condition. A new constitution was adopted, which gives as the counties embraced in the Association, Phila-delphia, Berks, and Northampton. The Association resolved to meet next year at Easton, and Rev. Moses Ballou was chosen to preach the sermon before the body. Three committees —one on Missions, another on Sabbath Schools, and the third on Publications—were appointed, on motion of Rev. Mr. Briggs. Last evening, a sermon was preached by the Rev. Mr. Thayer,

AN INTERESTING ENTERTAINMENT .- The orphans of the army and navy gave an entertainment, consisting of recitations, dialogues and singing, in the white department of the House of Refuge, on last Tuesday evening. Messrs. Lapp and Banks presided over the singing, assisted by the young ladies and gentlemen of Calvary Church. Several of the inmates of the Retuge, under the care of their teacher, Miss Rockwell, entertained the company with songs. The children were addressed by Masters Cook-man, Eckielt, Simpson, and Weill, of the Spring Garden Street Methodist Episcopal Sunday School. The orphans, assisted by the matron, Mrs. Matthews, sang patriotic Isongs, and the entertainment, upon the whole, was a pleasing

A New Police District .- City Councils recently formed a new Police District, called the Eighteenth District, composed of portions of the Eighteenth, Nineteenth, and Twenty-fifth Wards, with the Station House at Richmond Hall. Sergeant William Murray, of the Ele-venth District, has been appointed Lieutenant of the new District.

ARREST OF ALLEGED PICKPOCKETS,-Yesterday alternoon two men, named James Peters and William Bryan, were arrested on an Eighth street car for picking a gentleman's pocket. They were locked up in the Sixth Ward Station House for a hearing.

STABBED .- Frank White, twenty-seven years old, residing at No. 405 Penn street, while fighting with a man at Front and Spruce streets, was stabbed in the right side, the point of the knife going to the depth of four inches. He was taken to the Hospital.

COMMITTED SUICIDE.-Levi Brocklehurst, residing near the Lagrange Print Works, Bustle-ton, Twenty-third Ward, hung himself last even-ing, while laboring under a fit of temporary in-

CAMDEN AFFAIRS.

THE WILLOW GLEE.-Last evening a grand comprimentary testimonial was given to the "Willow Glee," of Philadelphia, by their friends in Camden, at Morean's Hail. Glee clubs from both cities participated in the exercises, and the both cities participated in the exercises, and the singing was excellent, that of the "Willow Glee" being superb. It is the intention of this Club to give a concert for the benefit of the Camden Home for Friendless Children, due announcement of which will be made.

Fracas.-Yesterday afternoon a number of men indulged in a fight at Second and Bridge avenue. Fists were thrown around regardless and much to the detriment, of sundry eyes, etc. One man, named William Mathews, had his collar-bone broken. No arrests were made.

DEATH AMONG THE CATS .- A strange epidemic prevails among the feline race in the environs of Brussels. Cats are dying in large numbers and very rapidly, after continual vomiting, spasms, convulsions, and other symptoms resembling poison.
